Is There Hope After?

When someone has endured abuse, it’s hard to feel hope for life and healing.

After abuse healing begins with the heart.

From a healthy heart we can build healthy relationships

EVANGELIZE 2022

[A Program of New Testament Evangelism in Action]

IS THE HOLY SPIRIT’S AGENDA OUR AGENDA?

“And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment...”

(John 16:8)

In John 16:1-15, Jesus reveals that he is going away. But, when the Spirit comes, He [the Spirit], will convict the world of three things: sin, righteousness, and judgment. Although these three may be familiar concepts, Jesus is using them in a very specific gospel way (16:9, 10).

- 1. Sin – because of unbelief that Jesus was the Christ
- 2. Righteousness – because of Jesus’ resurrection and return to the Father
- 3. Judgment – because the ruler [Satan] of this world has been judged

Our agenda should be one of conviction—a conviction that he is who he said he was (veracity); a conviction that he has been raised from the dead (vindication); and, thirdly, a conviction that his kingdom has come (victoriously).
