Dear Elders

May the peace of God and the Mighty blood of our Lord and savior Christ Jesus is in your lives, is my desire and prayer for each of you. As Mexicans, we are in our patriotic month, celebrating Mexico's independence with the traditional shout: Viva Mexico! It's with so much emotion that it gives us Goosebumps. I usually take this opportunity, while people are thinking about independence, to preach a message on the topic to emphasize the true freedom that the Lord brought to our lives, based on John 8:31-32. That will surely be my sermon for this Sunday.

By the way, this Tuesday morning I had a Bible study to present the gospel at the house of Mr. Julio Sifuentes, who is a visitor in our congregation. At the end, I asked him the question from Acts 22:16, 'And now why do you delay?... I was surprised by his response when he answered, 'You say it is urgent, right? Then I want to be baptized right now.' At that moment, he decided to be baptized, so we went over to the building church. Some of our members arrived to witness the baptism, and that is how he was baptized.

I want to share with you that in our Sunday School class, I am teaching the core theme: 'Models of Conversion' based on the Book of Acts, emphasizing the steps of conversion. This past Sunday, we considered 'the conversion of the Philippian jailer.' As a result, three souls have already been baptized: Arlet Govea, Iram Priego, and Julio Sifuentes. Now, we are feeding them in their own homes with the Word of God, which is the pure spiritual milk (1 Peter 2:2), for they spiritual growth of our newborns.

Well, Brothers. I say goodbye wishing and trusting that it is God who renews our forces like eagles, so let's not stop flying that destiny is eternity

Sincerely

Miguel Garcia
