Summary: The Andrews Church of Christ is searching for an Associate Minister of Youth and Family. We want you to make this congregation your home and make a difference by serving in the church's ministry by helping our youth develop a strong, lasting faith while equipping parents in the spiritual development of their families.

Andrews is located in West Texas between Lubbock and Midland-Odessa with an approximate population of 15,000 people.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement a comprehensive youth ministry program
- Develop adult teams to help minister to the youth
- Build meaningful relationships with parents, guardians, and caregivers.
- Encourage and equip parents as the primary spiritual leaders in their homes
- Communicate with parents routinely about upcoming events and important news to the success of the ministry
- Work with Children's ministry deacon to promote their spiritual growth
- Work with the education ministry deacons and help teach classes and VBS
- Teaching and preaching the Word of God in a way that is engaging and relevant to young people.
- Lead and facilitate youth group meetings, Bible studies, and other spiritual activities
- Plan and organize larger activities for family and youth, such as retreats, or camps
- Plan and organize opportunities for the students to serve the church body and local community
- Promote opportunities for youth to serve in evangelism and missions
- Provide spiritual guidance and mentorship to youth in the church body
- Offer Christian counseling and support to youth facing personal challenges or crises
- Various administrative and other tasks needed to keep ministry running

Character, Experience, & Knowledge:

- Prayer to and dependance on God, a growing and active relationship with the Father
- Clear testimony of faith in Jesus Christ
- Strong understanding of Christian teachings and principles
- Able to teach and preach
- Bachelor's degree from a Church of Christ–affiliated university or a certificate from a school of preaching
- Mature married Christian man with 3+ years' experience preferred
- Able to connect with others on a personal level
- Strong organizational skills for event planning and coordination
- Ability to work collaboratively with other staff members and volunteers
- Maintain a work calendar reflective of activities, responsibilities, and priorities

Additional Capabilities Required:

- Preach during Sunday services as needed in coordination with the Pulpit Minister
- Support the congregation's child safety guidelines
- Must have a valid driver's license.
- Must be able to cope with varied and pressing priorities at any given time.

Reports To: Eldership

Hours Per Week:

- Full Time (40 hours)
